

Areas of Professional Leadership Responsibility

Peter A. Facione, Dean
Santa Clara University

Strategic planning, vision, institutional culture

Educational programming, curriculum, quality

Personnel, faculty and staff hiring, training, supervision, evaluation, development

Resources and infrastructure required for successful achievement of program and mission

Legal and ethical conduct of duties, development and implementation of protocols and policies

Revenue generation, donor cultivation, institutional advancement and marketing

Professional, community, and governmental relations and partnerships

Professional development, interpersonal and technical skills, habits of mind, sensitivities

Managerial responsibilities of the role, tactical acumen, knowledge of the job

All are essential.

Are any major areas missing?

Is there a priority among the different areas?
